FROM THE CONSIDERED, TO THE WILD

COLLECTION

Rooh: Inside-out
Rooh is the poetic rhythm of nature.

Rooted in the essence of the Panchatattva, prithvi-jal-agni-vayu-akash the five elements that breathe life into existence, these forces of creation inspired our Rooh collection which embodies their presence inside-out, in every detail. Rooh is the soul of nature because nature our something outside of us — it is something within. Crafted from terrazzo, composed of mirror and sand which create a poetic dialogue between rawness and refinement. The mirror reflects allowing us to see ourselves within it, while the sand grounds us in the elemental forces that shape existence. Rooh, honours monochromatic earth's hues to speak for themselves, while touches of brass bring warmth, like the golden light of the setting sun.

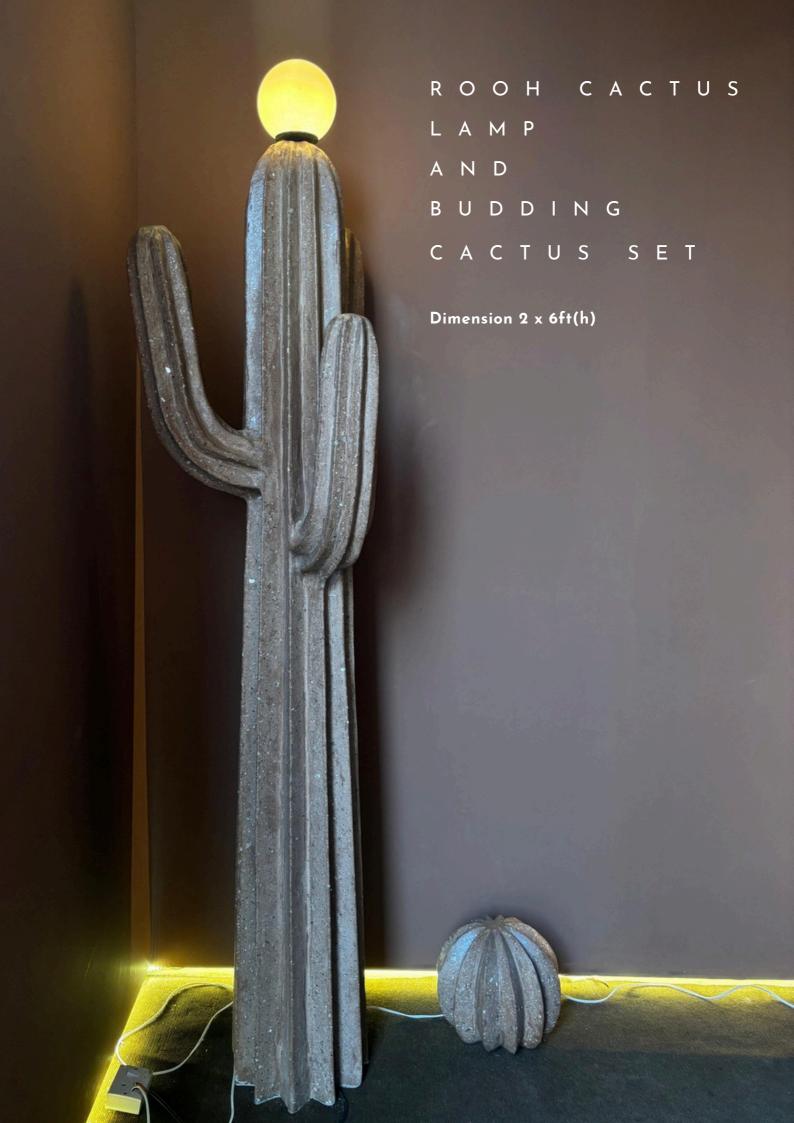

poetic experience. Dance embodies the rhythm of life, much like the natural forces that shape our world. It represents fluidity and grace, an ethereal experience that connects the body and spirit. The circular globe lamps resemble celestial bodies, symbolizing the vastness of space and cosmic energy.

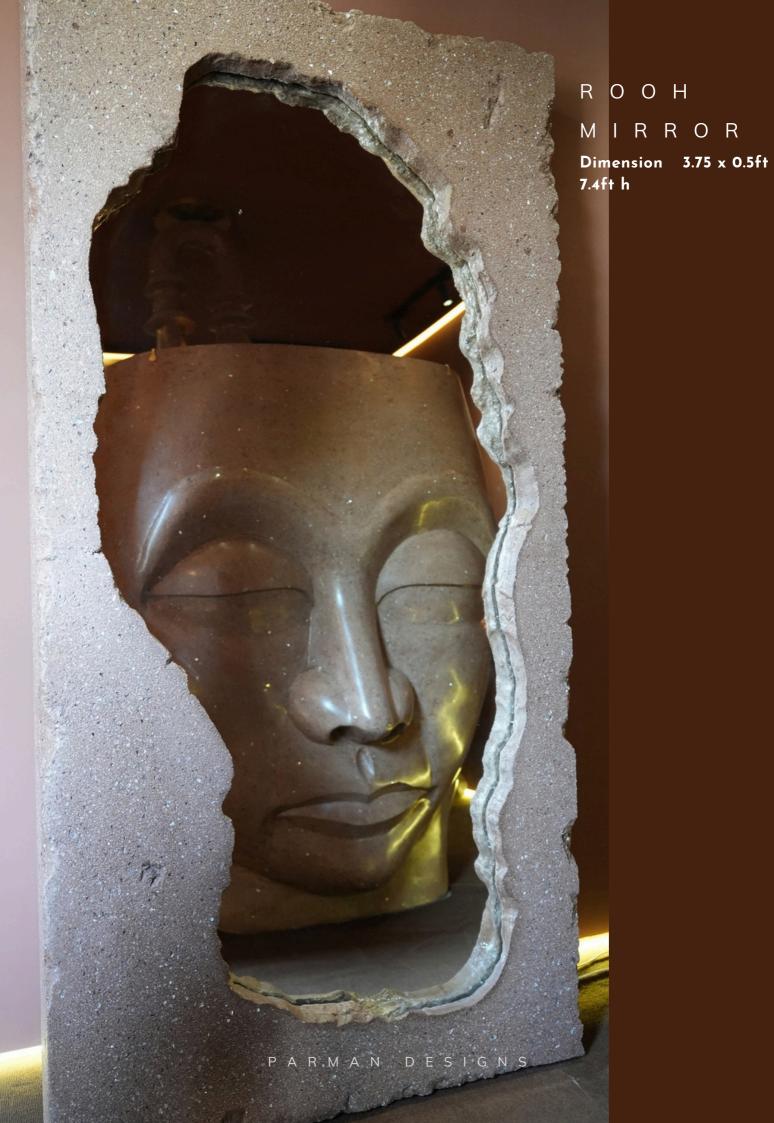

Dimension h 7.25ft

The console symbolizing a fire that purges and transforms. The console design represents the untamed energy of creation and transformation. The evolution of fire—from flicker to flame to steadiness—parallels the process of turning raw, dynamic energy into something stable and functional, captured in a fluid, organic form.

ROOH

DOLLS

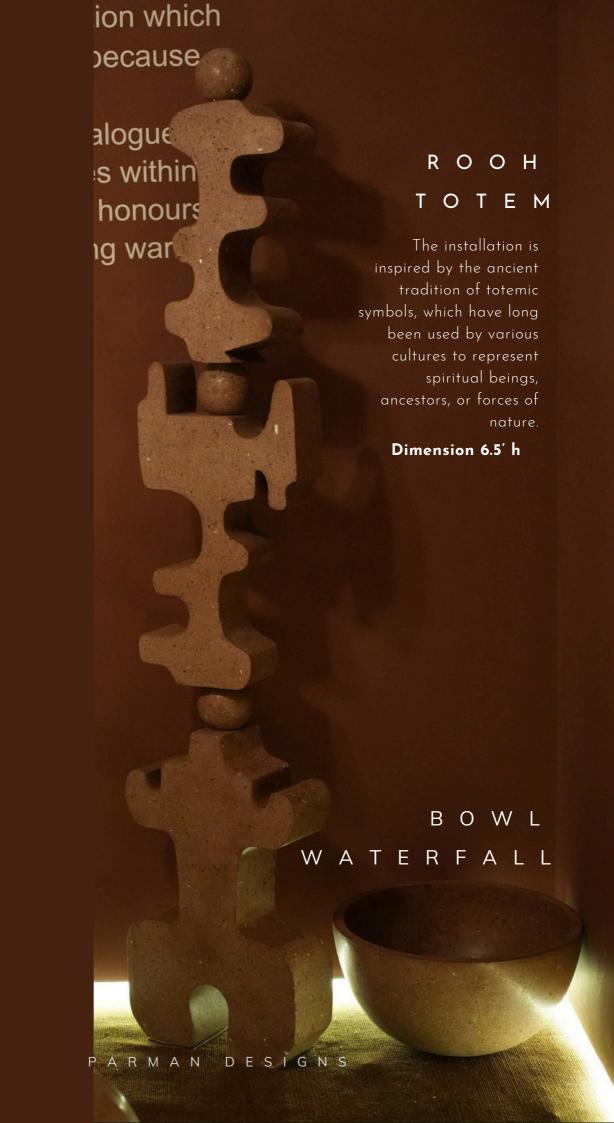

A surrealist exploration of light and form, where the boundaries between reality and imagination blur. The design merges the rigid, structured form of geometric shapes with the organic, dreamlike qualities of nature. The flower form seems to transcend the geometric structure, as though it's blossoming from an imagined, alternate reality.
